GENOVA

MORE THAN THIS

Genoa is a city that offers a lot in terms of conference facilities and hotel accommodations, which makes it perfect to host congresses & events.

Its airport is well connected with the major European cities and the city itself is easily reachable from other airports or transport hubs.

Genoa is a living city, where elegant shops, historic shops, lively open-air markets offer continual surprises to the most demanding tourist.

Experience Genoa is also discover the several souls that compose it.

GENOVA

MORE THAN THIS

The nineteenth century neighborhood, the fishermen and vacation villages in the East and in the West part, with houses and picturesque glimpses, and the ones in the hinterland, with their untouched traditions.

The stage images and the views, appreciated also as film set, are the frame for an intense cultural life: unique museums, great theatrical and musical tradition, important exhibitions and great international shows, such as Euroflora and International Boat Show.

The city of Aquarium offers a lot of activities to the people who love the sea: equipped beaches, water sports.

GENOVA POST EVENT

Porto Antico is Genoa's waterfront, open and lively 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

A few steps away from the heart of the historical downtown area, a spectacular "square" on the Mediterranean, easily accessible, closed to traffic and with Wi-Fi connectivity; a place full of charm and history, museums, public playground, swimming pool on the sea, cinema, Europe's largest aquarium, cafes, Eataly and themed restaurants. This place is a thousand years old and was in need of renewal. Renzo Piano took the job and brought the sea to the heart of Genoa and Genoa to the heart of its visitors.

The city of Genoa, its great charm and culture, one of Europe's busiest ports and largest medieval historic city center. Here you can explore incomparable art treasures and architectural gems like the Rolli Places, 50 ancient residences of the Genoese noble families today listed as UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site.

GENOA

Ligurian Riviera:

Amongst the most admired coastlines, the two Rivieras are most popular with tourists coming from all over the world. Amid the most favorite locations are Cinque Terre, UNESCO Cultural Heritage Site, Lerici and Portovenere, the Tigullio Gulf and Portofino easily reachable by sea from the ferry departure point at Porto Antico.
